An Outstanding Selection of United States Pattern Coins

EMPIRE COIN COMPANY, INC.
O'Neil Building
Binghamton, New York

We present on the following pages a selection of United States pattern coins from our inventory. Attributions are to U. S. Pattern, Trial and Experimental Pieces by Adams and Woodin (available from us for $7.50 postpaid) and U. S. Pattern, Experimental and Trial Pieces by Dr. J. Hewitt Judd (available from us for $10.00 postpaid). All coins are in Proof or Uncirculated condition as issued unless stated otherwise. All prices are net.

Most of the patterns listed on the pages to follow are from the incomparable collection of Major Lenox R. Lohr of Chicago, Illinois. Others are from the former collections of F.C.C. Boyd, King Farouk, William H. Woodin and others. As the advanced numismatist knows well, the most important factor in collecting patterns is the chance to acquire them. It would be well to keep this in mind while perusing the catalog. All of the items are rare. Many are of extreme rarity, are unlisted or are unique and may never be publicly offered again.

Orders from the original Lohr Collection catalog (which is now out of print and no longer available) fell into several well defined categories. These categories illustrate the various ways of pattern coin collecting. Some of them were:

Pattern type set: One of the popular ways to collect patterns is by assembling a type set. As a beginning many acquire a pattern coin of each denomination. . .1/2¢, 1¢, 2¢, 3¢ nickel, 3¢ silver, 5¢ nickel, half dime 10¢, 20¢, etc. A minimum set of this nature is an attractive and interesting adjunct to a choice type set of regular issue United States coins.

Specific series: This is one of the most logical ways to collect pattern coins. A specialist in U. S. half dollars will try to acquire as many different half dollars as possible, a specialist in small cents will acquire the various patterns of that series. By collecting patterns with a specialized collection of a specific series the advanced numismatist is able to exhibit a series complete in all facets. . .adopted designs, proposed designs, experimental pieces, trial pieces in different metals, etc.

Trial pieces: A number of persons have formed interesting sets of trial pieces. An 1869 Proof set with all of the coins struck in aluminum or copper is a first rate exhibit set that will create considerable interest wherever it is shown. Another way to collect trials is to concentrate on one series. . .endeavor to complete a run of dates in the shield nickel series, for example, in copper or aluminum. Collecting trial pieces requires great patience as most of them are infrequently offered.

Design sets: Sets of specific pattern designs may be formed. You may wish to acquire each of the several dozen different Standard Silver patterns, or a set of the 1872 Amazonian patterns in the various denominations and metals. There are many different possibilities.

These are just a few ways that patterns may be collected. We have also noticed interest in a specific year. . .the collecting of all patterns dated 1873 and 1882 are examples. Others collect the patterns of a specific designer. . .Paquet, Morgan, Barber, etc.

As we stated in the Lohr catalog, we are now just on the threshold of pattern collecting. The interest in pattern coins is growing by leaps and bounds as more numismatists become familiar with the pattern series and the fascination it holds. Considering the rarity of the pieces, pattern prices today are very reasonable. . .especially when compared to coins of comparable rarity in the regular U. S. series. Today's reasonable prices will become tomorrow's bargains.

We thank you for your consideration and interest in this catalog.
